A Message From Patti

Dear friends of CWTC,

First of all, thank you! Thanks for supporting our local organization. Thank you for your donations, for hiring adults with disabilities, for supporting us in many ways and making us a vital part of our community.

We all take this time of year to reflect back over the past year. We all go about our busy lives and sometimes just try to make it through the day. It is good though, to take some time, relax and reflect. One of my reflections this year is that in 2017 I celebrated 30 years at CWTC. What does this mean to me? Well, first of all I obviously am getting old!!! More importantly though is that I have had the pleasure of working with some of the most awesome people. Every day our consumers teach me something new and it brings a smile to my face. So my reflection this year is thank you to all our consumers from the past and the present that have made the past 30 years so very special!

My message as we end 2017 and look forward to 2018 is simple, what makes you smile? Who has changed your life? Can you do something to change someone else's life and make them smile?

My heartfelt thanks and blessings to you and your loved ones,

Patti Gratton

Mission Statement

Our Central Illinois organization provides programs and services to adults with disabilities; enriching their quality of life, promoting social change, and optimizing their potential for independence.
