A Message From Patti

Dear friends,

Helping people with disabilities achieve their maximum potential is what we strive to achieve every day at CWTC.

We have been through some challenging times the past few months and it looks like this will continue into the near future. What I can say for certain is, that each day that I walk into CWTC I am so very proud of each and every person that we serve at our organization.

We have some amazing, talented individuals who do not let their so called disability hold them back. We have great workers, creative artists, wonderful singers, good friends, avid bowlers and I could go on and on. As we all face some of the challenges of the future, one thing is very clear - our folks are achieving greatness on a daily basis.

Thank you for supporting the wonderful achievements of our awesome individuals at CWTC!

My best to you,

Patti Gratton
