

The CWTC Insider

A Message From Patti

Dear friends,

We are in the people business. Our job is to assist our individuals with learning skills to attain independence. We can not do this alone. It takes our team here at CWTC and many others to help us be successful.

I would like to thank all those that support our team: Peoria County Care and Treatment board for grant funding for 2 of our programs, Heart of Illinois United Way for grant funding for 3 programs, City of Peoria CDBG for community grants, Caterpillar Inc. and Rome industries for providing work for our individuals, our community employers, and all our community supporters. Without you we wouldn't be successful in achieving our mission of independence for adults with disabilities. So, thank you, thank you, thank you!

With gratitude,

Patti Gratton

Consumer Spotlight

Mindy has been attending CWTC for 18 years. She is in the Community Integration Program where she packages Caterpillar parts in the work area as well as participates in classroom activities and discussions that increase her independent living skills. Mindy enjoys volunteering and going on community outings and activities that are offered each month. Mindy always has a smile on her face and is ready to work or volunteer whenever it's available.

CWTC is always looking for volunteers in the areas of basic skills, computer knowledge, arts and crafts, gardening, and music. Our fundraising events also require volunteers to assist with setup and tear down as well as help during the actual event. We have teamed up with the Heart of Illinois United Way's Volunteer site to list current and future opportunities. We would appreciate any help you can give to enhance the services that our individuals are already receiving. Click HERE or on the banner above and check the site often.

Ways to Get Involved: Attend an Event!

We have a lot of fantastic events happening throughout the year. Of course, you send a strong message by attending or participating in any, or all, of our fundraising opportunities. Whether it's taking part in CWTC's Annual Pathway Awards & Dinner in September, the Super Trivia Challenge in January or one of our community events made possible by generous community businesses, your participation is key. Time is the most valuable asset you can give and serves as an endorsement of our programs and services for our consumers. It is a vote of confidence and assurance for our adults with disabilities that the road ahead is backed by your love and support. Nothing motivates accomplishment more than encouragement.
