

The CWTC Insider

A Message From Patti

Dear friends of CWTC,

Every day I am amazed at how awesome our consumers are. This is especially true with their art ability. Over the past several years, we have found that the art program has increased the self-esteem of many of our consumers, helped them manage some of their stress and improved their creativity. They have benefitted in the social aspect of daily living by increasing their social interactions with other artists.

Next month we will have an art show at the Peoria Art Guild, showcasing some of their art work. This is not really a fundraiser for CWTC, more of an awareness of the talents of our client artists. Their art pieces will be for sale with half of the proceeds going to the individual artist and half going back into the art program. I encourage you to come see, what I get to see every day and that is the talented, awesome consumers that are part of the CWTC family.

My best,

Patti Gratton

Roy has been associated with CWTC for 34 years. Roy resides at one of our residential facilities and enjoys reading and watching sports on TV, especially baseball games. He likes to take trips to see the St. Louis Cardinals play and enjoys Peoria Chiefs games, as well. He enjoys painting and has a painting this year in the CWTC Inspiring Abilities Art Show!

CWTC Inspiring Abilities Art Show

CWTC is proud to present our "Inspiring Abilities Art Show," Wednesday, May 8th, from 5:30 to 8:30PM. This year's event moves to the Peoria Art Guild, located at 203 Harrison Street in Peoria.

The evening showcases the many talents of our CWTC consumers through their paintings and pottery. Pieces will be on display and for sale during our silent auction with proceeds benefiting the artist and the Inspiring Art Abilities Program.

There are a couple of new items to know about this year. You can preview some of the artwork on our Facebook artwork page and buy a piece in advance! Each piece is available for $100. No muss, no fuss, no bidding...it's yours if you're first to buy it. See the art pieces HERE! New pieces are being added everyday, so check often.

Mini Painting & Pottery sessions will be featured with Jody Tockes and Jacob Grant giving "hands-on" tips and lessons. Each session is 30 minutes long and costs $10. You can sign up HERE!

Admission is just $25 in advance; $30 at the door and includes hors d'oeuvres, wine and beer cash bar, and live music from Sarah & The Underground. Tickets are available at CWTC or online at cwtc.org.
