

The CWTC Insider

A Message From Patti

Dear friends of CWTC,

Many times when we have community members come for a tour of CWTC, they say to us that we are the best kept secret in town. We do not necessarily want to be a secret, yet we go about our daily business without a lot of fanfare. CWTC is a local not for profit, that has been providing services to adults with disabilities in the central Illinois area since 1960. We assist our individuals in maximizing their independence in both their work, vocational and community lives.

We are grateful for the support of our staff, business partners, such as Caterpillar and Rome Industries, family members and our community partners. If you know someone that would be interested in learning more about CWTC and how we are helping to build a stronger community by supporting adults with disabilities, please contact me.

Consumer Spotlight

Sandy is in the Consumer Spotlight this month! Sandy has received vocational and residential services from CWTC since 2004. She lives in one of our CILAs and takes part in the Inspiring Art Abilities program. Sandy enjoys the ballet, listening to the oldies, going to church and is an avid card player!

CWTC Inspiring Abilities Art Show

CWTC is proud to present our "Inspiring Abilities Art Show," Wednesday, May 8th, from 5:30 to 8:30PM. This year's event moves to the Peoria Art Guild, located at 203 Harrison Street in Peoria.

The evening showcases the many talents of our CWTC consumers through their paintings and pottery. Pieces will be on display and for sale during our silent auction with proceeds benefiting the artist and the Inspiring Art Abilities Program. Admission is just $25 in advance; $30 at the door and includes hors d'oeuvres, wine and beer cash bar, and live music. Tickets will be available soon at CWTC or online at cwtc.org.

New this year, Mini Painting & Pottery sessions will be featured with Jody Tockes and Jacob Grant giving "hands-on" tips and lessons.
