

Community Workshop & Training Center
Abuse and Neglect 2019 Version
Rule 50

1. True or False In order to protect the welfare and safety of adults with disabilities, Illinois State law has required OIG (Office of Inspector General) to adopt rules and regulations to follow. This is known as Rule 50

2. True or False Rule 50 requires that all employees must be trained in the requirement of Rule 50 upon hire, every 5 years and when changes occur

3. True or False An “allegation” is any assertion, complaint, statement, claim, or suspicion that abuse or neglect on an individual (consumer) may have occurred

4. True or False For an allegation to be reportable to OIG, the victim must be an individual (consumer) and the accused must be an employee (including temporary workers and volunteers)

5. True or False Only CWTC administrative staff members are Required Reporters

6. True or False Every allegation must be reported to OIG within 8 hours of the time it was first discovered. If it is on a weekend, it can wait until Monday morning to be reported

7. When should you report an allegation of abuse or neglect?
 - a. When you are a witness
 - b. After you have done the investigation
 - c. When you are informed of or suspect an allegation of abuse
 - d. a & c

8. The first step when you become aware of possible abuses is to immediately
 - a. Call or directly talk to the Safety Director or the Director of Quality Improvement or the Administrator of Residential or the Executive Director
 - b. Call the consumer’s parent
 - c. Inform your co-workers
 - d. Inform the consumers

9. Failure to report abuse or neglect can lead to:
 - a. Disciplinary action, including termination
 - b. Criminal Charges (Class A Misdemeanor)
 - c. A fine up to $2500
 - d. All of the above

10. If it is substantiated that you had of sexual contact with a consumer the following could happen to you:
 - a. Charged with a felony
 - b. Mandatory registration as a sex offender
 - c. Be suspended from CWTC for a day
 - e. a & b

11. You must report which of the following abuses:

- a. Physical abuse & Sexual abuse
- b. Mental abuse
- c. Financial Exploitation
- d. Neglect
- e. All of the above

12. How soon must you report suspected abuse or neglect?

- a. One hour
- b. Immediately
- c. Eight hours
- d. At the end of your shift

13. Which of the following statement is True?

- a. You must cooperate with investigators (CWTC investigators and OIG investigators)
- b. You are an employee only during work time so if you abuse a consumer on the weekend or off of workshop property, it is not counted as abuse. It is not illegal
- c. Before you report the allegation, you must first clean the area where the allegation occurred
- d. You are breaking confidentiality laws if you talk to OIG investigators

14. True or False You may not screen allegations – they all must be reported

15. True or False If you are accused in an allegation, you will be notified of the investigative findings by OIG by an official letter

Matching: Write the response that matches the statement.

- a. Mental Abuse b. Financial Exploitation c. Neglect
- d. Sexual Abuse e. Physical Abuse

_____ 16. An employee shows a male resident pornographic material

_____ 17. An employee fails to follow an individual's diet order because he/she doesn't agree with it

_____ 18. An employee is cursing and making derogatory comments to the consumer

_____ 19. An employee buys items for him/herself with an individual's money while shopping

_____ 20. An employee slapped a consumer in the face to get his attention

Employee Name (Print)

Date

Employee Signature

Score