A Message From Patti

Dear friends of CWTC,

Every day we see and read inspirational quotes and messages. How we can improve our lives, be a better person, get healthy, be happy, etc. Sometimes the inspiration that we need is right in front of our eyes. My job as executive director of a not for profit is many faceted; create a budget, manage HR issues, stay compliant with regulations, stay current on legislation that effects our organization, fundraisers, etc. etc.

Now where do I get my inspiration on a daily basis? Not from a quote on Instagram, a story on LinkedIn, or passages on the internet. I get my inspiration by walking right out of my office door and visiting with the awesome consumers we serve every day. You see, yes, my job description includes all the items above and they are necessary for our organization to be successful. But the true inspiration and the heart of CWTC is each and every individual that walks through our doors. They have positive attitudes, they succeed despite the odds, they are building a successful and fulfilling life for themselves. So really my job is to support the quest for independence of our individuals and they make it so much easier with their inspiration.

Please join us if you can on September 10th to recognize some of these truly inspirational individuals.

All my best,

Patti Gratton

Consumer Spotlight

Carey is in the Consumer Spotlight this month! Carey lives independently in a CWTC apartment and works hard daily on the Caterpillar packaging contract. She is always happy to see everyone, has a very positive attitude and always willing to help out and stay over when needed. She enjoys word-search puzzle books and loves to watch Animal Planet. Carey also loves to read her bible and say her prayers every night.

A Night to Remember!
