A Message from Patti

Dear Friends of CWTC,

I hope everyone had a good Thanksgiving holiday with family and friends, or however you chose to celebrate. As we enter the holiday season, I hope we can take some time to step back, slow down and reflect. We had Black Friday and Cyber Monday. How many of you are already tired of all the advertisements in your inbox? Let's not get all wrapped up in the commercialization.

Sometimes, we need to just step back and evaluate. It's the little things in life that we need to enjoy. Put down the laundry, stop sweeping the floors and take 30 minutes to play Candyland with your younger loved ones. Make a memory - go ice skating, bake cookies, take a short trip, or do a good deed for your neighbor. Take relief from your hectic December pace and enjoy an impromptu dinner or a glass of wine with a friend and relax.

In other words, be grateful and thankful. Do something fun! Don't be in such a hurry that you miss the little things in life.

Thankful and grateful for all of those that support CWTC!!!

Wishing you peace, joy and blessings,

Patti
